

JAMES B. HUNT PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT GRANT PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

The North Carolina Foundation for Public School Children has established ten (10) Professional Development Grants of $1,000 each, to be awarded to low wealth schools or school districts during the current school year. The grants are named in honor of Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. and are available as of July 15 of each year. Any NCAE member is eligible to apply for a grant for his/her school or local, if located in one of the low wealth school districts as defined by the State Department of Public Instruction. To apply, please follow the grant proposal guidelines outlined below. The proposal must be typed, and if the proposal does not meet the required guidelines, it will be returned.
