

Delegate Committees

NBI Committee

This very important committee reviews all new business items to be acted on by the NEA delegates. The New Business Items Committee makes recommendations to the delegation and, on the floor, to the leadership.

Resolutions Committee

The Committee is comprised of North Carolina's three elected representatives to the NEA Resolutions Committee. The Committee reports to the delegation and makes recommendations on amendments and resolutions, as well as new resolutions before the house.

NCAE Resolutions Election Committee

Has the responsibility for conducting the election of NC's representatives to the NEA Resolutions Committee.

Legislative Program Committee

Has the responsibility to review the legislative program that will be presented at the RA and to discuss any issues of interest or concern. The committee will also make recommendations to the delegates regarding amendments to legislative program that are made on the convention floor.

Delegate Communications Committee

Has the responsibility of using technology and social media to communicate to delegates and to members not attending the convention. The purpose of the communications should be to provide information relevant to the business of the RA and to provide "back home" members with a taste of a national representative assembly.

NEA-FCPE Fundraising Committee

Has the responsibility to assist with auction, collection of funds, cheerleader and any other activities.

Vilma Leake First-Timers Club

Has the responsibility to help delegates attending the convention for the first time to get involved in convention procedures and activities.

Candidate Greeters

Has the responsibility of greeting candidates/representatives at the door of the NC Caucus. Makes sure the candidate card is filled out and delivered to the chair as soon as they arrive.

Position Sign Carriers Committee

Has the responsibility of carrying the signs that will remind the delegation of positions taken during caucus meetings and inform the delegation of positions recommended by leadership during floor debate.

Seat Covers/Delegation Monitors

Have the responsibility of distributing and collecting the convention seat covers. Makes seat assignments for state officers, Board, state contacts, etc. Monitor delegation to ensure that only delegates with proper credentials are seated.
